

Okay. It's Junior year and you may be telling yourself... "What's the rush, I've got another year to start thinking about life after high school!"

Truth? Not really. There are so many things to think about, from financing your education after high school to exploring your options. You know this whole portfolio thing is not about what we are doing to you -it's about YOU and having a clue of how to get there.

Think about it. Would you rather stay in high school and become Mr. Cook's personal assistant FOREVER? No. Then start planning.

Oh, and I know what you're thinking. This portfolio thing bites. But we've listened to your complaints and made A LOT of adjustments.

So here it is. Your working portfolio, your...
